

10 claims for digital media pluralism

1. The world is digital. Media pluralism needs to be, too.
2. Let's talk more! A network is needed to (re)invent digital media pluralism.
3. Hate speech is a threat to open dialogue. We need to counter it collectively.
4. Free and strong journalism is a precondition for democracy. Let's defend it!
5. We need to find new methods to monitor media pluralism. Academia, are you in?!
6. Better access to data is needed to safeguard media pluralism.
7. Surveillance endangers freedom of opinion.
8. Technology is part of the solution. Let's create more diversity by design.
9. Dear brothers and sisters of the regulatory world, we need to reinvent the way we work.
10. Let's change the law to safeguard transparency and freedom from discrimination.
